HAVE YOU SEEN HIM IN HONOLULU?

SAN JOSE, March 13.-Charles W Knickerbocker, the young business man who was arrested a few days ago for an alleged assault on little fourteen-year-old Edna Weed, and who was admitted to $3000 bail, has disappeared. Knickerbocker also owned a house on St. James street worth $2500 of which so far as known he has made ao disposition. It is rumored this af ternoon that he sailed for Honolulu, but it is thought more probable that he has followed the example set by ex-Senator Wright, who found safety in Honduras.

HILO JOLTED A BIT.

Shortly before 3:30 Saturday morn ing, March 13, there was a sudden de sire for early rising on the part of the people of Hilo owing to a couple of sharp jolts, from Mother Earth, that fallowed each other in quick succession so as to almost seem one continuous cake. Other than a general move ment of pictures and the upsetting of some light articles, there was no dam-age done. There were three light shocks on Susday afternoos, and a tremer or two in the evening.

Around the Police Station

If you wait to work on Sunday you had better go into a tack case, or a your task word and put a hig, tall fenourous the place, or you are liable to attest. There is a Sunday observance law yet. Three dupmores who were building a sungan on Roudey down in Kahanko were arrested by a police officer on the complaint of a resident intely necessary, and Judge Andreas therefore fined them at and costs.

Best Baid of All. The hest planned police raid of the Jarrett administration, was headed on Sunday night by Departy Sheriff Rose, who, with a posse of officers, surrounded the Akwai indiding on Beretania. Ave. and Achi lane, and larged thirty-five alleged gamblers. These gentry were taken to the ponce station. The place has been reported running for several months and recently, an additional game was reported to have start ed up in the same building, both places being connected by a series of smirways and traps, ingeniously arranged to ceive the police.

Previous to going to the house the deputy marked several pieces of silver money which were placed in the hands of a couple of informers. One of these was admitted to the basement gambling room and played awhile. Later his con-federate was admitted, whereupon the first one left and immediately informed the deputy who was waiting a few blocks away that nearly fifty Chinese were in the place dallying with dice and dominoes in the fascinating game of paikan. The deputy sent for officers and surrounded the entire building, thus shutting off egress. The numerous secret doorways and panels baffled the officers for some time, so that when they gained entrance to the room there were no signs of a game. Some Chinese were found there and others in various rooms upstairs. D. L. Akwai, who lives up stairs, was found in an apartment and he was included in the bunch of thirty When searched several pocket yielded up marked coins, showing that in some manner or other the evidence coins had been transferred from the in formers to the alleged gamblers. Pos sibly a defense of paying off debts will be set up to account for the presence of these coins in the pockets of others than the informers who introduced them. The case was set over until to morrow morning. It is understood that Judge Humphreys has been retained to defend the case.

This same building was raided couple of years ago by the grand jury or rather visited by that body, and the members were astounded at the in-genious contrivances in evidence or loors, secret panels in walls, and wires cading to doors and other openings, all used to prevent entrance by others than those who knew the ropes. The contrivances were designed to deceive the police. As a result of the grand jury investigation Willie Crawford had to stand trial for allegedly being connected with the game.

Crawford is now Hawaiian interpre-ter in the police court and it is said that an effort is being made to intro-duce him there as Chinese interpreter to replace a young Chinese. It is un-derstood that Judge Andrade has no intention of yielding to certain influ-ences by giving him the coveted appointment.

Sentence Was Suspended.

Sentence was suspended in the case of Mrs. Markle in police court yester day morning, when the charge of pur-loining a large quantity of copper wire belonging to the Rapid Transit Company was read. The request for a sus pended sentence came from the Rapid Transit Company, owing to the fact that the woman has a large family and s noor and a centence hardship on those dependent upon her A Phoney Twenty.

Charged with passing a gilded Ha-waiian half dollar as a twenty-dollar gold piece, C. T. M. Ogawa, a Japanese merchant, stood trial in Judge Andra de's court yesterday morning. The testimony of the prosecution was pre-sented and at its conclusion the defense moved for discharge on the ground that a case had not been made out. The court took the matter under advisement and will give an opinion on the motion next Monday.

Transplanting Mother Earth.

Dirt, ordinary dirt-thirty tons of it —will be taken from here to Midway Island this trip of the Flaurence Ward. Piles of it are now accumulating on the wharf and these will be loaded into the hold of the boat. White coral sand is the only terra firms on the little South Pacific island, and not only is it im-possible for the people there to grow vegetables, but it is also almost impos sible for them to retain their eyesight after the sun-glare has been cast from the white sands for some little time into their optical organs. Consequently, Mother Earth is transplanted in large quantities from here and sprinkled over the sand. It is probable that with the dirt which is being sent down this trip the people on the Island will increase their "truck-garden", or smallfarm, as it has come to be known
